THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS PAN AMERICAN

70th Annual Graduation

Sunday, December 19, 1993

The University of Texas Pan American

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
True and loyal, we will be.
This our song,
"Forever Onward!"
With our colors, green and white.
May you be our inspiration,
Lead us ever to the light.

To our dear old Alma Mater,
To the name of UTPA
This our song,
"Forever Onward!"
With our colors, green and white.
May you be our inspiration,
Lead us ever to the light.

RETIRING FACULTY 1993

MS. MARGARET BALTIS
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

In 1956, Ms. Margaret Baltis received her Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Speech from Pan American College. In 1967, Ms. Baltis earned her Master of Arts degree in English and History from McNeese State University in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

In January of 1968, Ms. Baltis began teaching for Pan American College in the Department of English. She became tenured faculty in 1971, as the school obtained university status and a name change to Pan American University. In December of 1989, Ms. Baltis began phased retirement as the university joined the University of Texas system. In December 1993, after serving as an Assistant Professor of English for many years, Ms. Baltis concluded her final year of phased retirement from The University of Texas-Pan American.

DR. HUBERT J. MILLER
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY & PHILOSOPHY

After receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1951 from the University of Dayton in Ohio, Dr. Hubert J. Miller taught at the secondary level for five years, which included two years in El Salvador. He received his Master of Arts degree in 1954 from St. Louis University in Missouri. Dr. Miller taught at St. Mary's University in Texas from 1960-1971. He received his Ph.D. in 1965 from Loyola University of Chicago in Illinois, and was a visiting professor at Southern Methodist University in 1966. In 1971, he began teaching at The University of Texas-Pan American.

Throughout his career, Dr. Miller's administrative duties included: director of a night school program in El Salvador, Department Chair, Coordinator of Latin American Studies Program, curator of the UT-PA Rio Grande Valley Historical Collection, Chairman of Faculty Research Council, chairman of university and city bicentennial committees, member of the Academic Advisory Board of Texas College and University Bicentennial Program and director of oral history and teaching conferences.

Dr. Miller published extensively, including numerous abstracts for the American Bibliographical Center, four encyclopedia entries, five newspaper and magazine articles, fifteen journal articles and book chapters, seven booklets and one book. One of his articles treats the use of oral history in the writing of history of Mexican American people in the Rio Grande Valley. One of his booklets is a short history of Spanish colonization of the Valley area that serves as a teaching tool for kindergarten through twelfth grade teachers.

Dr. Miller has been awarded the Smith-Mundt Student Exchange Grant, Tinker Foundation grant, NEH grants, Committee on International Education of the Border States University Consortium of Latin America grant, and faculty research grants. In 1985 and 1992 he received publication awards by the Southwest Council of Latin American Studies, and served as president of the Council from 1983-1984. He also served as president-elect of the Texas Catholic Historical Society from 1992-1993.

His editorial works included: board member of UT-PA press, The Borderlands Journal special issue of 1988 and the Journal of Texas Catholic History and Culture. ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dan Morales, State Attorney General

Dan Morales became the 48th Attorney General of Texas in January 1991 at the age of 34. He began his public service career in 1983 as Assistant District Attorney for Bexar County. In 1985, Morales was elected to the first of three terms in the Texas House of Representatives, where he served as chairman of the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee and as a member of the Ways and Means Committee.

Morales earned his B.A. degree from Trinity University in 1978 and his J.D. degree from Harvard Law School in 1981. He has served as a trustee of Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Schreiner College in Kerrville, and the Southwest Region of Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He currently serves as a member of the Board of Overseers of Harvard University.

SEEDLING PALMS

A tradition, initiated in 1982, is the presentation of a seedling palm to each graduate. These palms will in the years to come, take root in many soils, standing tall and proud, constant reminders of the shared achievements of The University of Texas-Pan American graduates and their Alma Mater.
