* HONORS STUDIES

To graduate in the Honors Studies framework, a student must maintain a high academic average, must take a specific number of honors classes at the freshman-sophomore level, must complete a program of independent study and research at the junior-senior level, and must demonstrate proficiency in a specialized area through a senior honors paper and through an oral examination before a faculty committee.

The following student wrote an undergraduate thesis as part of her graduation requirements within the Honors Studies Program.

Belinda Gonzalez - White's Hidden Masterpiece: An Examination of Antland as Compared to "Voyage to the Country of the Houyhnhnms" and Nineteen Eighty-Four.

Advisor: Dr. Frederick von Ende

RETIRING FACULTY 1987

MR. ROBERT McDOWELL

Mr. Robert McDowell, who retires in August 1987 is the University Library's Assistant Director for Public Services/Assistant Professor. He received his B.S. from the University of Omaha, his Master's Degree in International Relations from the University of the Americas in 1965, and his Master's degree in Librarianship from San Jose State University in 1968.

Mr. McDowell retired as Major from the U.S. Air Force after serving from 1942 through 1963. A large portion of his military service was in Air Force Intelligence.

Previous to his employment at Pan American University, he held the positions of Technical Services Librarian and Head Reference Librarian at Boise State University, 1968-1977.

His ten-year employment at Pan American has been marked by distinguished and extensive service on numerous academic committees.

MS. LUCILA MONTOYA-WALDMAN

Ms. Lucila Montoya-Waldman received her B.A. from Hunter College New York and her M.A. from the Manhattan School of Music, New York.

Ms. Montoya-Waldman is retiring from her present position of associate professor of Music. Assignments during her tenure at Pan American University have included: applied voice, vocal chamber music, opera workshop, vocal methods, music appreciation, class voice, music for elementary teachers and assistant director of the choir.

Ms. Montoya-Waldman was also very active in the direction of musical productions of the Pan American University Theatre. She also served in numerous University Committees: including the University Scholarship Committee, Visiting Artists Series, Latin American Studies, Selection of Who's Who Students and Departmental Promotion and Tenure Committees.
