* HONORS STUDIES

To graduate in the Honors Studies framework, a student must maintain a high academic average, must take a specific number of honors classes at the freshman-sophomore level, must complete a program of independent study and research at the junior-senior level, and must demonstrate proficiency in a specialized area through a senior honors paper and through an oral examination before a faculty committee.

The following students wrote undergraduate theses as part of their graduation requirements within the Honors Studies Program.

Leonid Ellis - "A Database of Geological and Related Research Conducted on Padre Island, Texas Since 1976"

Advisors: Dr. Donald Fritz
Dr. Paul Mitchell
Mr. Robert Rodgers

Cathleen Watkins - "Family Solidarity among Hispanic Elderly"

Advisors: Ms. Hermila Anzaldúa
Dr. Nancy Greenwood
Dr. Rumaldo Juarez
Dr. Paul Mitchell

RETIRING FACULTY 1989

DR. J. E. GRATZ

Dr. Gratz holds a B.S. degree in Accounting and English from Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania, a Master's degree in Business Education from the University of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania State University. His doctoral degree is from the University of Houston with specialization in Business Education, Accounting, Management and Economics.

Dr. Gratz has been Director of Business at Shippensburg University in Pennsylvania and Chairman of the Business Education Department at the University of Iowa. In addition, he has been a visiting professor at the University of Vermont, the University of Michigan, and the University of Houston.

Currently a professor of Business Administration at Pan American University where he teaches undergraduate courses in Organizational Communication and a graduate course in Administrative Communications, Dr. Gratz has been senior coordinator of the Adjunct Faculty for the Command and Staff College of U.S. Marine Corps, Quantico, VA. He retired with the rank of colonel.

Dr. Gratz has served as consultant for a number of national and international organizations and has over 40 books, monographs, and articles published in addition to a number of research projects. He is on the Board of Directors for the National Hall of Fame for Business Education, and has served as Interim Dean of the School of Business Administration at Pan American University.

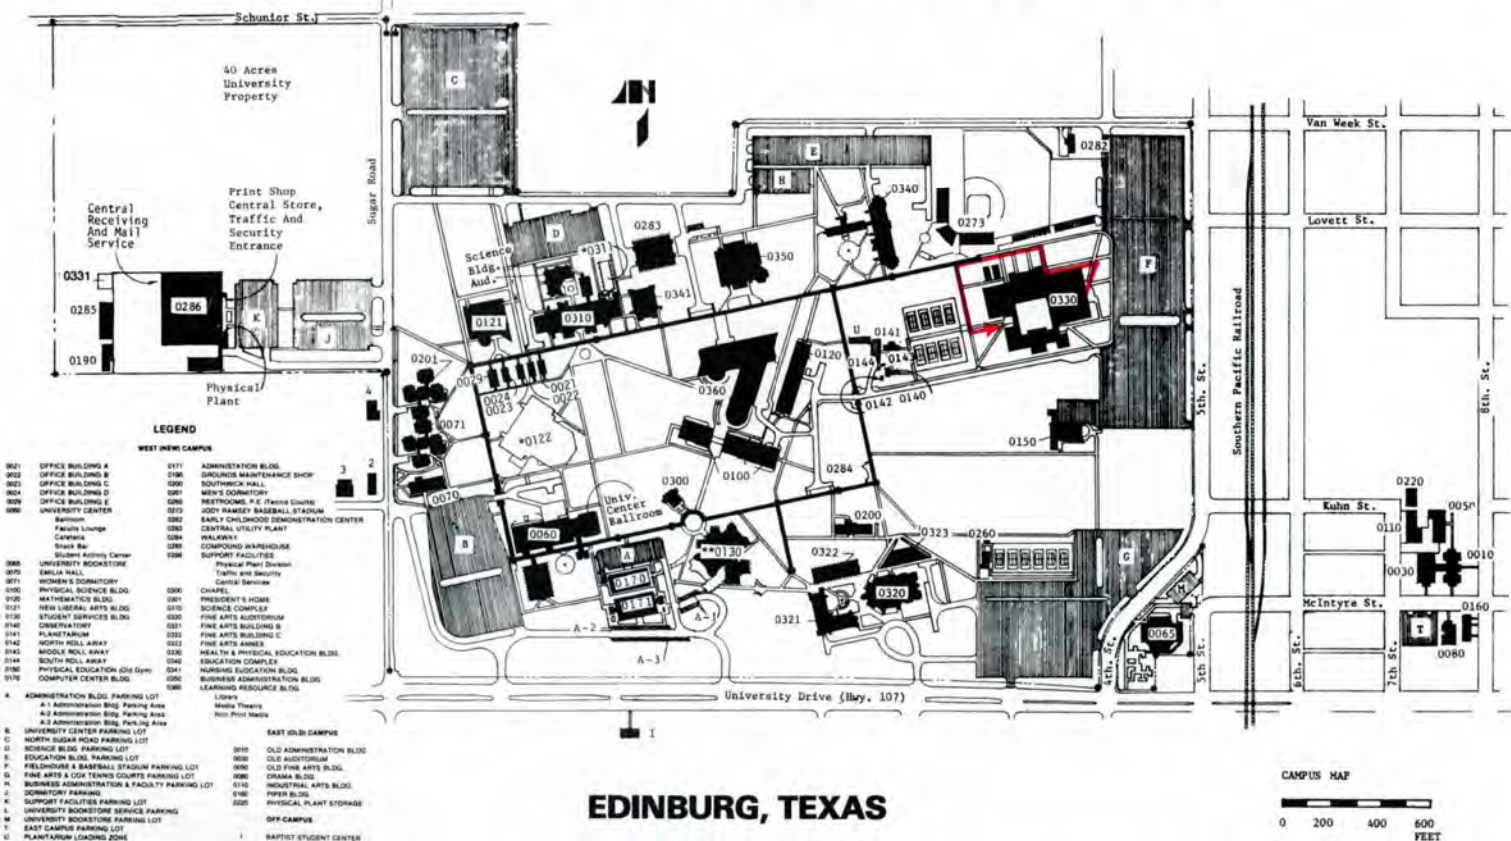

MR. RICHARD FULTON

Mr. Richard Fulton, Assistant Professor, Department of English, received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Alabama. He continued his graduate studies in the doctoral program at the University of Birmingham, England. Before coming to Pan American College in 1966, Mr. Fulton taught at McNeese University, Lamar University, Saint Bernard College, and the University of Alabama. Mr. Fulton also taught English in both Saudi Arabia and Beirut, Lebanon.

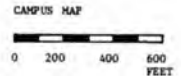

During his 23 years of teaching at Pan American University, Mr. Fulton taught a wide variety of English courses, including all courses at the freshman and sophomore levels as well as courses at the junior and senior level. Mr. Fulton's area of specialization is in Shakespeare studies.

Beginning with the Spring, 1989 semester, Mr. Fulton elected to retire so that he might devote more time to travel, an activity which he has defined as "the most exciting part of life."
