RETIRING FACULTY 1992

ELIZABETH GRATZ

Elizabeth Gratz has a BS degree in English and Social Studies from Shippensburg University (PA), a masters degree from the University of Houston (TX), and a Ph.D., in Education from the University of Iowa, with specializations in English, Curriculum, and Children's and Adolescent Literature.

Dr. Gratz has more than twenty years public school teaching experience in Pennsylvania, Iowa and Texas prior to joining the School of Education faculty in 1974.

She has conducted classroom research and is the author of professional publications in her areas of specialization. She has served on executive boards for several state professional education organizations and has presented numerous papers at state and national professional meetings.

Professor Gratz has served on many university and School of Education committees, including the Faculty Senate, the Curriculum Committee, and the Wilford Lee Distinguished Lecture Series Committee. She also chaired the Department of Curriculum and Instruction-Elementary from 1982-84. In addition, she has conducted workshops and in service for educators and has been a member of Southern Association accreditation teams.

A recipient of The University of Texas - Pan American Distinguished Faculty Award for Teaching in 1983 and 1986. Professor Gratz received The University of Texas - Pan American Alumni Distinguished Faculty Award for 1991.
