ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Marie Isabel, came up last night. It may be a little chestnutty, but it is a fact that the river is rising at very rapid gate.

J. B. Wells, Esq. is expected home from Rio Grande City tonight where he had gone on legal business.

Each morning train takes away from the city one or more families, thus swelling the population of our beautiful little sea side resort, Point Isabel.

County Court.

The following tracts of lands were sold under execution Wednesday, by the sheriff:

1660 acres of the San Juan de Carricitos tract belonging to Gertrudes Moya, to satisfy judgement of $21.80 and cost.

1660 acres of same grant belonging to Refugio Trevino; sold to King for $21.80 and cost.

553 1/2 acres of same grant belonging to Manuel and Fernando Levaier, sold to King for $18.50 and cost.

The suit of Dreyfus vs. Fisher et. al. for debt. Judgement for plaintiff. Appeal.

Rio Grande City.

Special,
FORT RINGGOLD, July 7 --Nothing has been heard from the scouting party which left here some days ago under command of Lieut. Langhorn. Nothing more has been heard of the revolutionists.

The river here is on a rampage having risen six feet above high water mark and is still rising rapidly.
