Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

27 June 1974

WASHINGTON, D C ---Rep E (Kika) de la Garza today advised that the House Committee on Agriculture has approved a resolution allowing for emergency loan guarantee to ranchers and farmers engaged in the production of cattle, sheep, goat, and poultry.

Also included would be dairy operations. The emergency legislation is for the period of one year and will allow farmers and ranchers to renegotiate existing loans. Similar legislation has already been approved by the Senate.

Rep de la Garza said this is an effort to alleviate the problems now existing in the cattle and poultry industry and hopefully it will assist those in need to continue their operations and provide meat for the tables of the American people at reasonable prices.
