REPRESENTATIVE DE LA GARZA ANNOUNCES DEWITT & GOLIAD COUNTIES
ADDED TO PRESIDENTIAL DECLARATION AS "ADJACENT COUNTIES"

For Immediate Release: 21 October 1994

WASHINGTON, DC--Rep Kika de la Garza was just advised by the Small Business Administration (SBA) that several more counties have been added to the October 18, 1994 Presidential Disaster Designation for severe storms and flooding that occurred on 14 October.

"While none of these Declared Counties are within the 15th Congressional District," Rep de la Garza said, "the adjacent counties of DeWitt and Goliad suffered the storm impact and are eligible to apply for economic injury loan assistance."

The deadline for applying for loans is July 19, 1995. Applicants can call the FEMA teleregistration toll-free number 1-800-462-9029 where they will be referred to the SBA. Applicants will also be able to register at the FEMA Disaster Application Centers where the SBA will have loan officers available. After the Disaster Application Centers close, the SBA will open workshops as needed. Applicants must register with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) first.
