TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-KINGSVILLE TO HOST HISPANIC HERITAGE BANQUET

WASHINGTON, DC -- Every year from September 15 through October 15 National Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated. With origins that date back to 1968, when national Hispanic Heritage Week was established by Congress as an annual event, this is now a month-long celebration of the history and achievements of Hispanic Americans.

All across the nation communities have been holding various events in recognition of Hispanic Heritage Month -- among them is Texas A&M University-Kingsville. "I am pleased to be among this year's featured participants," 15th District Congressman Kika de la Garza stated.
